— WELCOME TO THE WORLD OF —

Yez.

A Strategic Homeownership practice for people who believe buying a home should be more than a transaction.

YEZMIN SAIF • FOUNDER • REALTOR • STRATEGIC HOMEOWNERSHIP

Your next chapter, designed

Real estate is more than choosing a property. It is a decision about your money, your lifestyle, your flexibility, and what comes next.

Yez exists for people who want to make that decision with clarity and intention. Through The Next Move Method, we turn the traditional real estate process into a strategy connecting where you are today with the life and ownership goals you are building toward.

— BRAND PILLARS —

Four principles behind every next move.

N. 01

Clarity

Clarity before action. We turn complex real estate decisions into a strategy you can understand, connecting the numbers, the property, and your priorities before making a move.

N. 02

Intention

Every move should have a reason. A home should work for your life today while supporting what comes next. We consider lifestyle, finances, flexibility, and future objectives , not just the transaction in front of us.

N. 03

Strategy

A property is part of a bigger picture. We look beyond the listing, considering price, location, ownership costs, appreciation potential, timing, and exit flexibility to design a smarter path forward.

N. 04

Bilingual

Closing is not the finish line. Ownership evolves as life does. Our relationship continues beyond the transaction, helping you understand your position, evaluate future opportunities, and prepare for the next move.

— BRAND PERSONALITY —

How Yez Shows Up.

N. 01

Considered

NOTHING ON AUTOPILOT.

Every recommendation begins with understanding the full picture , your financial position, lifestyle, priorities, and what you want ownership to make possible next.
We consider before we recommend.

N. 02

Confident

CLARITY CREATES CONFIDENCE.

We simplify the numbers, options, risks, and trade-offs so you can make informed decisions without the noise or pressure traditionally associated with real estate. No hype. No unnecessary urgency. Just a clear strategy for the move ahead

N. 03

Editorial

CURATED, NOT CROWDED.

From the properties we present to the information we share, Yez believes more isn't always better. We filter the noise, identify what matters, and curate options around your strategy.
Because good ownership decisions start with better information.

N. 04

Bilingual

TWO LANGUAGES. ONE LEVEL OF CLARITY.

We move naturally between English and Spanish, making complex real estate and ownership decisions easier to understand without losing precision, context, or strategy. Because language should never be a barrier to building ownership with intention.

The way Yez. speaks.

OUR VOICE MAKES COMPLEX DECISIONS FEEL CLEAR.

Yez communicates the way we practice Strategic Homeownership: considered in thought, confident in guidance, editorial in presentation, and bilingual with intention.

We simplify without oversimplifying. We educate without lecturing. And we guide without pressure giving people the clarity to understand their options and confidence to make their next move.

ALWAYS

- Considered, never rushed.
- Confident, never loud.
- Clear, even when the subject is complex.
- Strategic, but always human.
- Editorial, curated and intentional.
- Warm, but precise with numbers.
- Bilingual without losing meaning.

NEVER

- Generic realtor language.
- “Buy, sell & invest” messaging.
- Hype or “amazing deals.”
- Pressure or manufactured urgency.
- Financial jargon without context.
- Information overload.
- Corporate or overly polished language.
- Emojis as personality.

The next generation doesn't need another realtor.

IT NEEDS A BETTER WAY TO THINK ABOUT OWNERSHIP.

THIS IS HOMEOWNERSHIP BY DESIGN.

The Logo

PART 2.

Logo construction	.01
Logo variations	.02
Clearspace	.03
Scalability	.04
Misuse	.05

WORD MARK

Lowercase "ez" with capital "Y" balances approachability with authority. The period anchors the mark.

PERIOD

A statement of finality. Yez is the answer – no further qualification required.

GEOMETRIC FORM

Each letterform is built on a grid, with the period sized to match the stem weight of the wordmark.

TAGLINE

Hanken Grotesk Medium or regular, all-caps. Letter-spacing 0.22em. Defines the practice without raising its voice

Yez.
THE REALTOR

The logo system.

Three official variations, each with a defined role across the brand's touchpoints. The primary lockup is the default. The monogram is reserved for compact spaces and brand artifacts. The inverse monogram is used on dark surfaces where the wordmark cannot sit comfortably.

Logo Clearspace.

The exclusion zone ensures the legibility and impact of the logo by isolating it from competing visual elements such as text and supporting graphics.

This zone should be considered as the absolute minimum safety distance. In most cases, the logo must have more breathing space (marked as x in the diagram).

X = HEIGHT OF THE LOWERCASE "E" IN THE WORDMARK.

Scalability.

The Yez. wordmark holds its presence across a wide range of sizes from large-format signage to compact digital interfaces. Below the minimum size, the tagline is suppressed and the wordmark stands alone.

MINIMUM: 24 PX (WORDMARK WITH TAGLINE)
16 PX (WORDMARK ONLY)

Logo Misuse.

Maintaining the integrity of the Yez. wordmark is essential to the consistency of the brand. The following examples represent the most common forms of misuse, each should be avoided in all touchpoints.

— DON'T DISTORT

Never stretch, compress, or distort the wordmark proportions.

— DON'T ROTATE

The wordmark always sits on a horizontal baseline.

— DON'T RECOLOR

Only brand palette colors. No reds, blues, neons, or unapproved hues.

— DON'T ADD EFFECTS

No drop shadows, outlines, gradients, glows, or 3D effects.

— DON'T SWAP FONT

Always Coolvetica (or Rubik Black). No serifs, italics, or substitutes.

✓ CORRECT USE

The wordmark in its approved form, color, and proportions.

03. Typography

PART 3.

The brand's typography	.01
Type hierarchy	.02

Three families. One system.

Yez. combines three typefaces, each with a clear role. The hierarchy is created through weight and case, never through font swaps within the same level.

Type Hierarchy.

A typographic hierarchy is a system that uses typography the size, weight, and layout of different pieces of text to create a hierarchical division that shows users where to look for specific kinds of information.

It is an organizing system for establishing order, and the foundation of every Yez. communication.

04. The Brand Colors

PART 4.

The brand's color palette	.01

Color combinations	.03

Colour Palette

The use of color.

Color is hierarchical, not decorative. Three categories, dominant, supporting, accent, work together to create depth without noise. The 60-30-10 ratio is the baseline; individual layouts may shift slightly but never invert the hierarchy.

Cognac and Sienna are accents, used sparingly for prices, key callouts, and warm highlights.

- DOMINANT 60%

Espresso, Cocoa Bark, Bone. The foundation. Backgrounds, primary surfaces, editorial layouts.

- SUPPORTING 30%

Stone, Linen. Secondary surfaces, cards, subtle separations.

- ACCENT 10%

Cognac, Sienna. Warm punch. Reserve for prices, key callouts, highlights. Never the dominant.

Approved combinations.

Each pairing has been tested for legibility and brand resonance. Use these eight combinations as the foundation of all visual touchpoints.

06. Imagery

PART 6.

Photography direction	.01
Mood & treatment	.02

Photography Direction.

Yez. imagery favors warmth, restraint, and depth. Natural light is preferred, golden hour, late afternoon, soft directional sun. Compositions read editorial rather than promotional. Avoid wide-angle distortion, oversaturated HDR, and stock-photo poses.

The visual mood.

Every Yez image should feel like a still from a quiet film, composed, unhurried, materially rich. Below are the photographic principles that guide selection, briefing, and editing.

— LIGHTING

Natural & directional.

Late afternoon sun. Window light. Shadows that fall with intention. Never flat, never overexposed. Embrace warmth in the shadows.

— COLOR

Warm earth tones.

Browns, terracotta, cream, faded reds. Pull saturation back 10-15%. Never the cool, cyan-tinted real estate look.

— COMPOSITION

Wide and quiet.

Room shots favor 35mm framing. Architectural details get tight, intentional crops. Empty space is part of the composition

— SUBJECT

Material & lived-in.

Wood grain, linen, ceramic, leather, stone. Spaces that feel inhabited. Never sterile, never showroom-perfect.
